To Whom It May Concern;

I am extremely pleased with the services and support that has been shown to me by Joe and Kathy Lynn. His roommate services were a Godsend!!!

I was in an extremely crucial position of needing two roommates quickly. As a single woman who had never had roommates I was very unsure of the safety factors or my ability to screen someone and find a good roommate. I had heard all the horror stories about bad roommate situations and wanted to make sure I was protected as much as possible from any problems.

Joe found two roommates within days of my request and paying my fee. I checked his references and he had glowing referrals so I paid my fee and let him get started searching for my ideal roommates. Within days I had both rooms filled! It was a huge relief! It was a little rough in the beginning but with his guidance and support it has allowed all three of us to work out the problems that occur during the adjustment period most roommates go through.

Currently my two roommates and I get along famously and are very satisfied with the current arrangement. I would highly recommend Joe Lynn and the services he provides. I would also suggest the services his wife Kathy offers. She handles the contracts or other legal situations promptly and efficiently. They are a great team. If I ever needed to be a roommate or to find another roommate, Roommate Seekers is where I would go!
