To Whom It May Concern;

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Mr. Joe Lynn and his roommate services company.

I was down to the wire of needing a roommate and found one within a day. He very quickly found me the right match. He gave me several options, and suggested a particular person. I called and met with my current roommate and have been very satisfied since the beginning. It has been 3 months now and things just keep getting better with our arrangement.

I would highly recommend Joes' services. I appreciate his input and honesty and the ability he has to determine the needs of both parties. It helps to know that he has checked out all parties involved in the arrangement. I would use his services again if I needed to.

Sincerely,

Brent M.
